

Study Trip | Workshop in Spain | 20-24.10.25

Madrid

Living Landscapes

photo by Daniela Ortiz dos Santos, 2021

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

You are welcome to apply for an excursion and workshop that propose a critical look at the ideas of dwelling and landscape in heritage areas of Madrid. This project considers a transversal approach between art and urban history, agency, socio-politics and public debate. Students will be part of a series of activities; including group discussions, city walks and visits to architectural and cultural institutions. Developed in the scope of a Erasmus+ program, it involves four universities from Spain, Portugal, Italy and Germany.

APPLY UNTIL 29 JUNE 2025

Up to 12 students from the Goethe University shall be selected to join this project and will receive ECTS and a per diem paid by the GU (70EUR for at least five days). Applications are welcome to be sent via e-mail to Dr. Daniela Ortiz dos Santos <ortiz@kunst.uni-frankfurt.de> until Friday 29 June 2025 (motivation letter and CV). Selected applicants will be notified per e-mail and are expected to attend the introductory session on 4 July 2025 at 16h00 (room to be announced). This workshop is linked to a Seminar in the Winter Semester 25/26 to be offered on Wednesdays 16h-18h.